The Rabbi's Study

Time and life require us to move forward. We may find ourselves looking at past choices and crucial decisions with, in some cases, pride, and in others, regret. We may believe that we can fix and redeem mistakes and errors in judgment by using the same strategy with minor modifications. Sometimes, the lesson we must learn is that we must adopt a totally new approach, using newly-found wisdom to fashion a different foundation in our thinking. To do so, we may need to listen more intently to the many voices inside of ourselves in order to find a healthy combination of head and heart, rather than just one or the other.

Like Moses, we need to be brave and persistent. Like Aaron, we must have words at our command that tell our story and clearly reveal our desires, even our demands of ourselves and others. Like Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whom we remember this month, we need to find our dream, our goal, and try to reach it in a way that is peaceful and hopeful with words and actions that can bring about change because the ultimate aim itself speaks to the core of human decency and goodness. As Moses and Aaron continued to cry to Pharaoh and all of Egypt, "Let my people go!" the people themselves had to let go of the mindset of a slave one step at a time. So that when their day of liberty came, they would be ready to focus on a future of freedom rather than harboring bitterness and hatred at those who had so ruthlessly oppressed them. Every community has an opportunity to choose to move forward with determination and hope, looking at the new reality of the present recognize how it can lead to the creation of a bright future founded on generosity of spirit, understanding and hope. May we face the coming days as one community and along with all humanity moving forward together.

Message from our President, Carole Krassner

Dear Friends,

“Everyone can be great because everyone can serve”.

It's hard to believe that another month has gone by so fast. We have had our first snow-storm of the season and it is not only the end of the month, but the last couple of days of the year 2010 as well.

It seems like only a short time ago that everyone was stressing on December 31st, 1999 as to all the things that might have occurred when the clock struck midnight on the first day of the year 2000. Everyone had visions of computers crashing and lack of fresh water, among other things. Fortunately, we didn't have to deal with any of those issues.

The reality is that we are dealing with a lot of issues right here at Temple. Instead of making New Year's resolutions, the board is working very hard to set goals not only for the coming year, but for the long-term future of Temple Israel of Dover. Some of these goals are: keeping our Temple community together, keeping our Religious School strong, keeping our building and being able to afford to pay a rabbi. It is a very difficult and challenging time. We always need more volunteers, and we need to increase our membership and our cash flow as well. Within the next couple of weeks, each and every Temple member will receive a phone call from a board member with an update of our goals and what path we will take in order to accomplish these goals. As always, I encourage Temple members to contact me directly to discuss any concerns or to offer ideas. We encourage each and every one of you to get involved.

In the meantime, Temple Israel is a hub of activity and programming! Please join us on January 16th when we host the Dover Community Commemoration of the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Just this afternoon, I was browsing the internet to read some of Dr. King's very inspiring "I Have a Dream" quotes.

Sisterhood will offer a program on January 18th with presenters from Wentworth Nursery. On Wednesday, January 19th while Religious School is in session we will be celebrating Tu Bish'vat with our annual Tu Bish'vat at 5:00 p.m. We hope that you will join us!

We look forward to a fun-filled evening on January 29th with Frank Santos, Jr. a comic hypnotist. Please call Ilese Stevens to make a reservation. We also look forward to the Art Auction on April 16th and the second annual Nosharama on May 15th.

Please don't forget to support our ongoing Mitzvah Project to provide non-perishable food items for the Dover Food Panty. I also encourage you to take the time to browse the books located on the table in the foyer with the history of our Temple over the past seventy-two years. Ann Isacoff, our official Temple historian, has done a great job to keep these books updated. You may find a picture of a family member or perhaps of yourself in these books. There are many interesting articles that have been published in the local newspaper through the years.

From our prayer book, Mishkan T'filah-May it be your will, our God and God of our Ancestors that you lead us in peace and help us reach our destination safely, joyfully and peacefully.

On behalf of the Temple Board, I wish a very Happy and Healthy New Year to each and every one of you.

L'shalom, Carole

Temple Israel of Dover will host an annual interfaith service on Sunday, January 16, 2011 at 7:00 pm to honor

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Sponsored by the Dover Area Religious Leaders Association and Dover Cooperative Ministries

On Sunday evening, January 16th, at 7 PM, the Interfaith Community surrounding Dover will gather for our annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Birthday Commemorative Service – held the evening before the observance of King's birthday. Our congregation will be hosting the service—please join us to offer our hospitality!

The offering received at the service will be distributed to local organizations that assist people in need. A time of fellowship will follow the service in the fellowship hall of First Parish Church. Let's gather, with our neighbors, to worship the God who inspired a great vision, and is bringing that vision to fruition.

Hospital Visits: Please keep us informed!

Due to national privacy laws, hospitals are not allowed to call congregations to inform them that their members have been admitted as patients. If you know you are going to be in the hospital in advance, please call the Temple office. If you find yourself in the hospital unexpectedly, please tell a nurse that you would like to see the hospital chaplain, who can call the Temple to let us know that you are there. Rabbi Karol and your Temple Israel community would like to give you the care and support that will help you face your health challenges or concerns.

ART AUCTION-APRIL 16

Dear Congregants,

We are well on our way to having a very successful Art Auction in April 2011. We have a wonderful cadre of auction chairpeople. They have dedicated themselves to making this a very profitable fundraiser for our Temple. But we need more. We need your help in other ways. We need to sell ads and we need to sell tickets. Without these two ingredients the auction fails. We need you to call us and tell us you will help. If you are not up to approaching people to sell the ads or tickets then let us know who they are and we will approach them.

Another way you can help is on auction day. We will need cashiers, runners, set-up and clean-up, parking attendants, etc.

Please call Tammy at the Temple office (603-742-3976) and tell her you want to make the Art Auction a big success.

Thank you in advance for your participation.

Andrew Martin announces the publication of his new book, Reflections of a Loving Partner: Caregiving at the End of Life

Reflections of a Loving Partner: Caregiving at the End of Life is the story of loving partners confronting the challenges of living a life of hope, despite one's terminal diagnosis and the other's discovery of the burdens and joys of caregiving. Once in that intimate role of caregiver, and now a registered nurse and leader in the field of hospice and palliative care, C. Andrew Martin has turned his personal experience into a life's work, offering to share with others the valuable lessons he has learned. Whether you are currently in, or anticipate being in, the role of caregiver, these personal stories of love, living, dying, and life following the death of a loved one may offer support as you embark on this journey.

For more information, go to Andrew's website:
<http://candrewmartin.com/aboutmybook.html>

You can find a link there to purchase the book at www.amazon.com.

We wish Andrew, who was an active member of Temple Israel Dover, mazal tov on this achievement!

“Not A Victim! – Tales of Survival in Nazi Budapest” Presented by the local author Tom Weisshaus on Tuesday, January 10, 2011
 at Riverrun Bookstore, 20 Congress Street, Portsmouth, NH

Tom Weisshaus does not claim to be a victim of the Holocaust, after all he is still alive. But most of his family lost their lives at the hands of the Nazis or the Hungarian Nazis. He is a survivor, but as he underscores emphatically, “Not a Victim”, because he does not want Adolf Hitler and the Nazis to continue to define his life. And what a life he has lived. His family was Jewish but not particularly religious, which did not matter much to Nazis. Tom's father, Sa'ndor was called into the Hungarian Work Service in 1942, then transported to the Ukraine and died there in 1943 of illness and mistreatment. In Oct.1944, Thomas and his uncle La'szlo are called into the Work Service and are held on Csepel Island in the Danube river along with some 20,000 other Jewish men. Miraculously, his aunt Mariska comes to Csepel Island and obtains their release. His observations while at Csepel Island and later at a safe-house, of the thousands of Jews being shipped by trains to concentrations camps or even executed on the banks of the Danube, are particularly chilling, especially since he suspects that his mother and sister may have been among the victims. He leaves his fatherland, Hungary, at the tender age of 16 with nowhere specific to go, but determined to get out of the continent of Europe, which in his eyes was haunted by the Nazis. His modest but moving book is a first-hand account of experiences as a teenager, both amusing and horrifying, during the Nazi occupation of Hungary in the period 1944-45. In 1945 with the help of Swedish diplomat, and Nobel Peace Prize winner, Raoul Wallenberg, he is able to leave Hungary and travel first to Germany, then to various cities in America and finally to Exeter, NH. Along the way he feeds his artistic and cultural hunger, meets his wife Patricia in Chicago, earns a masters degree in arts and a fellowship at Yale University and is hired to teach English and English literature to American students. His is an inspiring story worth hearing.
